Anti-Bribery and Corruption Statement

GMG Brokers Ltd is committed to conducting all its business with honesty, integrity, and in full compliance with all applicable anti-bribery and corruption laws and regulations, including the Bribery Act 2010 (UK).

GMG Brokers Ltd has a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption in all forms. We will not offer, pay, seek, or accept any bribe, improper payment, or other improper advantage in connection with our business activities, whether in dealings with public officials, private sector counterparties, or any other persons. This commitment applies to all employees, officers, directors, and any persons acting on behalf of GMG Brokers Ltd.

GMG Brokers Ltd maintains adequate procedures (within the meaning of section 7(2) of the Bribery Act 2010) designed to prevent persons associated with it from engaging in bribery. These procedures include: a group anti-bribery and corruption policy; due diligence procedures in respect of counterparties and intermediaries; training for all relevant employees; and procedures for reporting and investigating suspected breaches.

Gifts, hospitality, and corporate entertainment are only offered or accepted where they are modest, transparent, appropriate in the context of a legitimate professional relationship, consistent with applicable regulatory requirements, and not intended or reasonably perceived as a means to influence business decisions improperly.

Any person with concerns or knowledge of actual or suspected bribery or corruption involving GMG Brokers Ltd should report the matter through our internal reporting channels or, where appropriate, to the relevant authorities. Whistleblowing protections apply in accordance with applicable law.
